

Name _____

Date

Title _____

Author

MAKING CONNECTIONS
(Connecting)

I can make a connection between something I read and:

- ⊖ Something in my own life
- ⊖ Something in another book
- ⊖ Something in the world today

In the story I read about

It made me think about

It helps me better understand the story because

Name _____ Date

Title _____ Author

VISUALIZING
(Picturing the Vocabulary)

Please use these words from your reading to complete the activity below:

The word:

The meaning:

The picture in my mind:

The word:

The meaning:

The picture in my mind:

Name _____

Date

Title _____

Author

QUESTIONING (Wondering)

Things I can wonder about as I read.....

1. What are some questions that this story answers?
2. What questions do I have after reading that are not answered right in the story?
3. What was confusing to me in this story? It could be a word, paragraph, or idea.
4. At what point(s) in the story did I make a prediction? What did I think would happen?
5. What is it about the author's style that I like or dislike?

Name _____ Date

Title _____ Author

DETERMINING IMPORTANCE

(Noticing)

"BEST QUOTE"

Find a quote from this story that seems very important. It might be important because it shows good description, helps you understand a character, foreshadows a problem, or represents an important moment in the story.

What is the page number?

Write the quote here, and remember to use quotation marks.

Why do you think this quote is important?

